56 Leonard Street, New York

Six years ago, real estate developer Izak Senbahar enlisted Herzog & de Meuron to design 56 Leonard Street, TriBeCa's tallest—and most ambitious—building, which finally broke ground. "What's thrilling about 56 Leonard is how the homes are stacked on one another so they jut into the sky—so on the 16th floor, it feels like you're floating in the air." 56leonardtribeca.com
